

Oat Mountain Drive and Picnic

Saturday, September 16, 2023

Meeting Point: Bank of America parking lot, N.E. corner of Devonshire and Sepulveda

Time: Meet there at 9:30am, Leave BofA at 10:00 A.M.

Bring: Food for picnic, water and/or beverages, hat, sunscreen, camp chairs and anything else to make a picnic more comfortable. If you decide to go hiking in the area, dress appropriately and be prepared. Don't hike alone. This is a hilly rural area and there is no cell service.

Route: We will take Devonshire west to De Soto north and then turn onto Brown's Canyon Road. Drive this road slowly and watch for potholes, sand and water. Especially try to avoid the potholes if your car is low. We will drive up the road until we reach the two parking lots just before the locked gate.

Cost: At the first parking lot, there is an "Iron Ranger". Bring a pen and a $5 bill. Feed the "Iron Ranger" and fill out the parking permit and leave it on your dashboard under the windshield.

This is an area with incredible views and beauty so bring a camera and be sure to pack out any trash. Photo by Gravel Bike California.
